

COMIC CRAFT

Project Planning Phase

The Project Planning Phase organizes the work required to complete the Comic Craft project. The team divides responsibilities among members, prepares a schedule, identifies the required drawing and editing tools, and sets important milestones. Tasks such as script writing, character design, illustration, lettering and editing are assigned to suitable team members. Proper planning helps the project progress smoothly and makes it easier to complete the comic within the available time.